GREAT CROWD ATTENDS FUNERAL

Large Assemblage at Grave of Congressman Francis R. Lassiter.

MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL

Lack of Quorum Prevents the Transaction of Any Business.

The Times-Dispatch Bureau,

109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., November 3. The very high estimate in which the late Congressman Francis Rives Lassiter was held in his native city was abundantly shown to-day by the crowded attendance at his funeral, and the large assemblage at the grave in Blandford Cemetery. The funeral took place at 11 o'clock at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and the solemn and impressive services were conducted by the rector, Dr. R. W. Barnwell. Every seat in the church was filled, and many were unable to gain admission. The Petersburg Grays, of which Major Lassiter was a former commander, attended in a body, and with the company were Major Benjamin Harrison and his staff of the Second Virginia Regiment. The Chamber of Commerce, of which Major Lassiter was a loyal and active member, was also e very high estimate in which the loyal and active member, was also present in a body, and committees of

Sounds Like Folly-But Try It Yourselfthe NEW WONDER "No-mor-dust"-That Strikes Housekeepers Dumb with Amazement

Make this Money Back Trial-you do not risk one penny—we give you our absolute guarantee that No-mor-dust will do everything for you that we promise here.

You can sweep now,-without raising a dust,—using the ordinary broom that you use every day.

Dust Before You Sweep.

Dust you piano, your pictures, your mirrors, before you sweep. THEN sweep the room with No-mor-dust. Then look at your piano, mirrors and pictures. You will find them free from dust, and clean as before you swept. This wonderful test proves positively that, with No-mor-dust you can sweep without raising any dust.

Nothing Else Like It.

You can't do that with tea leaves,—you can't do that with wet paper,—you can't do it with anything else. But you can do it with No-mordust, and we are going to prove it to you with an offer that makes it abso-lutely impossible for you to lose any money by your trial.

No-mor-dust is not like anything else you have used before. People who see it work are dumb with amazement. It does not just "lay" the dust and keep it from rising. It picks up the dust and grit and carries them away. It makes carpets look like new.

It's a green powder—comes in a green box—marked "No-mor-dust." You just shake it out on the carpet and sweep it along in front of your
